Welcome to the Portsmouth Site

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) Portsmouth Site in Pike County, Ohio is a nuclear industrial complex that has supported the United States energy and defense needs for more than 65 years. Current missions at the site include:

- Decommissioning and environmental cleanup
- Depleted uranium conversion
- Centrifuge uranium enrichment testing

Directions

- Coming south on US 23, take the exit just past Glockner Oil Company on the right.
- Coming north on US 23, the exit is near Mile Marker 4 on the right.
 - Proceed on West Access Road through the security portal to Perimeter Road.
